4. The Risk Landscape is More Complicated

2022 Gartner CIO Agenda

57%

of boards of directors believe an economically and politically polarized society is the biggest source of risk.

1 Composable thinking:
a mindset to guide the business through uncertainty and opportunity

"Leaders at my organization encourage the creation and reuse of modular business capabilities and technologies."

2 Composable business architecture:
a blueprint to manage the pace of business change

"We combine business elements (e.g., capabilities, products and services) in multiple ways to create new value."

3 Composable technologies:
systems and data that integrate quickly and easily

"The work of producing technology capabilities is modularized and automated using APIs, microservices and other modular components."

Technology-led integration is no longer
an option, but an imperative
